Anyway's All Right

Paul Westerberg

Waiting' for a girl
To tell you that she's gay
She don't know it yet
You want her anyway

Any way you can, any way you might
Any way you hope she will
'Cause any way's all right
On a now or never night

Waiting' for that fool
The one that cuts your hair
To tell you what to do
And remind you "I will dare"

'Cause any way's all right
Any way you can
Any way she might
Hope she will

'Cause any way's all right
On a now or never night

I'm a dog that's broken from my leash
And I'll be hopin'
To be laying in your pretty flower bedroom
I just have to

Miracles always happen when they have to
And as it happens
I expect one tonight in your flower bedroom
Come on

Waiting' for someone
To give me the okay
To really be in love
Or to go our separate ways

Any way we can
Any way we might
Any way I hope you will

'Cause any way's all right
On a now or never night
On a now or never night
It's a now or never night
It's a now or never night
