

Lone Star

Paul Williams

Lone star, on your roller coaster ride
How much longer can you keep it all inside
Are you happy under cover
Would you like to take a lover

Lone star with your come and love me look
Every gesture's like a chapter in a book
You convince us when you say it
You don't need to sing or play it

When you ride the range
Of emotions to the top of the hill
Surreal explosions
Made of hot breath and chills
Staying home might be a welcome change
This could be the start of something strange

Lone star
Are you coming out tonight
Come and charm us with your laughter and your light
Let our sweet affection feed you
Did I mention that we need you

Lone star as you rise above us all
Who could tell that you're afraid
That you might fall
With your hands not even shaking
We applaud the chance you're taking

When you ride the range
Of emotions to the top of the hill
Surreal explosions
Made of hot breath and chills
Staying home might be a welcome change
This could be the start of something strange

Lone star
Are you coming out tonight
Come and charm us with your laughter and your light
Let our sweet affection feed you
Did I mention that we need you

Lone star, lone star, lone star, lone star, lone star
