

When You Said Hello

Paul Williams

Satisfied of course, sure I had it all
Very busy living my dreams, visions large and small
Until you said hello, and life began to change
It's funny how you fit into my world, it's wonderful and strange

Suddenly it's safe to let go and keep falling
Maybe answered prayers look a lot like you, I think maybe so
Talk about surprise, how was I to know
Love called out my name when you said hello

Suddenly it's safe to let you and keep falling
Maybe answered prayers look a lot like you, I think maybe so
Talk about surprise, how was I to know
Love called out my name when you said hello
