

Betty-oh-beautiful

Paula Cole

You walked right over here and
You asked my name
So unabashed and beautiful
So without shame

Imagine my embarrassment, fumbling on myself
I am not what you want, I'm here with someone

Betty fascination
Betty, oh, beautiful
Betty for the ages
Betty, oh, beautiful

You are a [missing] study
With short, black hair
Hot girls [missing]
And attitude to spare

Me, there, a wilting violet
Tripping on my vine
Contempt to walk and talk
[Missing] pass the wine

Betty fascination
Betty, oh, beautiful
Betty for the ages
Betty, oh, beautiful
So beautiful (beautiful)
Dream of dreams
[Missing]
Colours and textures not known to me

Worlds within worlds
A lifetime of knowing
My desires
I'm projecting all that I want and all that I wish to be

So unfair and so unwise
Betty, you are not my size
This isn't right
I'm tempting with lies
I don't wanna hurt you, Betty
I don't wanna hurt you, Betty
Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, Betty

Can we just [missing]
Can we be friends?
There'll be no Hollywood ending
Just my two cents

The angel on my shoulder tells me, "Go back home"
Complacent [missing] on another lonely soul
Betty fascination
Betty, oh, beautiful
Betty for the ages
Betty, oh, beautiful

Betty fascination, yeah
Betty, oh, beautiful
Betty for the ages
Betty, oh, beautiful