To the critics and the cynics, who don't understand the lyrics To the atheists and the pessimists
Wanting company in their darkness, yes
You may see me as a fool, yes, a charlatan, an egotist
But I'd rather be this in your eyes, than a coward in his

I began as Isis, the high priestess My arms stretched to Sirius Me, the serpent Venus Awaken the fetus, fertility to Jesus Come and meet us

Looking within, I can see beyond my sight The cities, the sky, the planets roll by I awake and die, I awake and I die This is the rhythm of life

Looking within, I can see beyond my sight The cities, the sky, the planets roll by I awake and die, I awake and I die This is the rhythm of life

Next I was lightning, God energy fighting To tell my widow surviving, I was still alive in Another plane of life and I struck him seven times He finally looked to the sky Shed a tear and joined me dying

Looking within, I can see beyond my sight The cities, the sky, the planets roll by I awake and I die, I awake and I die This is the rhythm of life

Looking within I can see beyond my sight The cities, the sky, the planets roll by I awake and die, I awake and I die This is the rhythm of life

Rhythm of life, rhythm of life, rhythm of life, yeah Rhythm of life, rhythm of life, rhythm of life, aha Rhythm of life

Rhythm of life, rhythm of life, rhythm of life, yeah Rhythm of life, rhythm of life, rhythm of life, aha Rhythm of life

Now I am me, in diffident lead, responsibility
Trying to face my fear, from the trailer park to hear
Over mountains, through my death
From harbinger to amen, may my actions outweigh my words
May my lifetime be of worth

Looking within I can see beyond my sight The cities, the sky, the planets roll by I awake and I die, I awake and I die This is the rhythm of life Looking within I can see beyond my sight The cities, the sky, the planets roll by I awake and I die, I awake and I die This is the rhythm of life

Rhythm of life, rhythm of life, rhythm of life, yeah Rhythm of life, rhythm of life, rhythm of life, aha Rhythm of life

Rhythm of life, rhythm of life, rhythm of life, yeah Rhythm of life, rhythm of life Rhythm of life

All the worlds a stage
And all the men and women merely players
They have their exits and their entrances
And one man in his time, plays many parts
