

Twenty Twenty

Paulini

Did you ever think a day would come
Sitting all alone on the phone
Cause they just won't let you hug it out
With your best friend Mister Jones

Dancin' round and acting like a clown
All the good we didn't talk about
Now I gotta push away the doubt
But first we need to talk it out

Twenty twenty, cuttin' ties with you
Procrastinating, cuttin' ties with you
Idolising perfect eyes for you
Twenty twenty vision ain't come through

Twenty twenty, cuttin' ties with you
Procrastinating, cuttin' ties with you
Idolising perfect eyes for you
Twenty twenty vision ain't come through

Conspiracy theorist got me buggin' out
I won't take on their advice
Cause this fear ain't something I'm about
Can't believe them can't think twice
I need sunshine on a rainy day, yeah
Wanna party the night away
No more worries it will be ok
Cause we all know how it's gonna play

Twenty twenty, cuttin' ties with you
Procrastinating, cuttin' ties with you
Idolising perfect eyes for you
Twenty twenty vision ain't come through

Twenty twenty, cuttin' ties with you
Procrastinating, cuttin' ties with you
Idolising perfect eyes for you
Twenty twenty vision ain't come through

You can't lock me down
Cause I want
Cause I am
Cause I can
Cause I'm free
To be me
You can't lock me, yeah

My heart skips a little beat
When I think about the people separated
We all isolated on repeat
It's empty in the street's
Connection is affection
Our patience is tested
Text it
Put your feelings in tweet
It's not fair
People acting like they don't care

But now I feel like we are more aware
See divided we fall
Let's come together
Stand tall

Twenty twenty, cuttin' ties with you
Procrastinating, cuttin' ties with you
Idolising perfect eyes with you
Twenty twenty vision ain't come through

Twenty twenty, cuttin' ties with you
Procrastinating, cuttin' ties with you
Idolising perfect eyes with you
Twenty twenty vision ain't come through

Twenty twenty, cuttin' ties with you
Procrastinating, cuttin' ties with you
Idolising perfect eyes for you
Twenty twenty vision ain't come through

Twenty twenty, cuttin' ties with you
Procrastinating, cuttin' ties with you
Idolising perfect eyes for you
Twenty twenty vision ain't come through
