

You Little Trustmaker

Paulini

You little trustmaker
You're no heart-breaker, yes sir
You little trustmaker, you're no heart-breaker
You little trustmaker

You, you give me love
And all of the things that I will want forever
And you sweep away pain
Giving me joy I will know will last forever

Girl remember, you're my life, dream
You're my world, you're all I want forever and Lovin, warm and tender
I am glad, for all that I can count on

You, you give me love
And all of the things that I will want forever
And you sweep away pain
Giving me joy I know will last forever

You little trustmaker
You're no heart-breaker, yes sir
You little trustmaker, you're no heart-breaker
You little trustmaker
You're no heart-breaker, yes sir
You little trustmaker, you're no heart-breaker

You little trustmaker
You're no heart-breaker, yes sir
You little trustmaker, you're no heart-breaker
