

Western Homes

Pavement

Your western homes are locked forever
The new frontier is not that near
Magnetic screens that fold in backward
Will only bring you years of fear
This is what I always wanted,
A new home with a place to breathe
Bring your congregation someday
And you will never...
Never see what I want
I can't see what I want
Can't see what I want
I can't see what I want
What I want
Can't see
