

Here I'm singing

Pay money To my Pain

When you feel alone I want you to know
You're not the only one so why don't you get up

Once you've lost your pride, remember this
The memory will be gone and the scars remind you

Sometimes pain attacked you to fall down
Confusion takes away from your resolution
Now reason's gone from my small world
Then how I trust fuck that I don't need it anymore

If you believe me
I'm always by your side
And if you still need me
Remember I 'm here for you

If you believe me
I'm always by your side
And when the sun rise up
Then you get back your pride again

If you believe me
I'm always by your side
And if you still need me
Remember I'm here for you

If you believe me

When the sun rise up
Then you get back your pride again

If you believe me
I'm always by your side
When the sun rise up
I catch my breath, I don't have any fear

If you still need me
Remember I'm here for you
And when the sun rise up
That is the time to the fly again
