

Resurrection

Pay money To my Pain

A cold and empty hole
The darkest place I know
Is where I hid myself for so long
If I had just one wish I'd find a way to stay
Stay inside forever all alone
But would you understand?
If I still wanted to change
Throw it all away and start over again

Take the air I'm breathing
Suffocate my worn out soul
Let my heart keep bleeding
Because the more it hurts inside
Is proof I'm still alive
Take the air I'm breathing
Let the pain become the knife
That kills what I've become

I've seen
All there is to see
The best and worst of me
So now it's time to face these enemies
All the demons inside me
They will never see the end of me
Because this is my last resurrection

I looked the devil in the eye
Watched his fire burn
It's not my time

Take the air I'm breathing
Suffocate my worn out soul
Let my heart keep bleeding
Because the more it hurts inside
Is proof I'm still alive
Take the air I'm breathing
Let the pain become the knife
That kills what I've become

I've seen
All there is to see
The best and worst of me
So now it's time to face these enemies
All the demons inside me
They will never see the end of me
Because this is my last resurrection

We shall see the sun forever
Guide us through the pain and suffer
Let his voice reside forever
Loud and clear I hear him screaming
We shall see the sun forever
Guide us through the pain and suffer
Let his voice reside forever
Loud and clear you're still here with me
