

Life Is A Child

Peabo Bryson

Someone asked a question
"What is life?"
Life is a child
Life is a woman and a man
Life is love

Oh, whoa-whoa, whoa-oh-oh-oh...

Life, life is a child
And a child is, a child is just a dream
When it's dreaming on to its destiny, destiny
And love, love is a song
And love is, love is just a sun
When it's shining down on me, on me

What we have today, yeah, tomorrow
Even though it feels good
Just may fade away
You, you've got to be strong
Somehow we'll find a way, make it stay
We'll make it stay
Turn the world around, stay, stay
Oh, stay

Life is just a say, ooh...
And a day, a day is just a world
As it spins around, ooh, ooh-oo-oo...
Time and space, time and space
A man is just man without a woman
A man is like a sun when it's going down, oh...
There's only darkness, sun's going down

What we have today, yeah, tomorrow
Even though it feels good
Just may fade away
You, you've got to be strong
Somehow we'll find a way, make it stay
We'll make it stay
Turn the world around
Stay, stay
