

Deep Cuts

PEABOD

Blue check, wants a gold plaque
Appetite, gotta feed that, feed that
Internet fame looks sweet, but
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Execs want a big hit
Everybody tryna get rich, get rich
I already got my dream 'cause
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts

One hit, all ya need for celebrity
Follow that formula, babe, it's chemistry
Me and my phone more like frenemies
If you catch me in Yosemite, Imma be
Off the grid, not tryna post a pic
In the lab again, I'm in the labyrinth
I been gathering, abracadabra-ing
Uncovering what hovers on the other side
Chasin' the colors in the sky, not the numbers I'm tracin'
Another in the lines to discover my place in this whole thing
When I'm old, hope the goals ring
Truer than the gold I coulda sold my soul to cling to
I been to Atlanta, I been to L.A.
Almost made a plan to move to Tennessee
Every artist has the same question
How to hold art and money in tension

Blue check, wants a gold plaque
Appetite, gotta feed that, feed that
Internet fame looks sweet, but
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Execs want a big hit
Everybody tryna get rich, get rich
I already got my dream 'cause
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Deep cuts, deep cuts
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Deep cuts, deep cuts
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Execs want a big hit
Everybody tryna get rich, get rich
I already got my dream 'cause
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts

We're servin' art to the internet on a platter
And hopin' to climb the ladder enough to produce some chatter
But the fact of the matter is after all is said and done
A masterpiece to the internet is just zeros and ones
So I'm done with hysteria, yeah, I studied this area
And the youth of America can refuse to inherit
The disparity where we feed all of our dreams to machinery
Make your art change the scenery, make your art change the scenery
Whew, let me step off my soapbox real quick
A Biz mix make the jukebox heelflip
The boys told me "Go off," just did
Shakin' up the faux-pas, no lid
I'm on the brink, I'm unstoppable
Got more room to think than Fort Knox has gold, yeah

Nobody gonna tell me different
If money comes first, then you gotta pay interest

Blue check, wants a gold plaque
Appetite, gotta feed that, feed that
Internet fame looks sweet, but
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Execs want a big hit
Everybody tryna get rich, get rich
I already got my dream 'cause
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Deep cuts, deep cuts
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Deep cuts, deep cuts
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
Execs want a big hit
Everybody tryna get rich, get rich
I already got my dream 'cause
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts

(Blue check, wants a gold plaque)
(Gold plaque, gold plaque, gold plaque, gold plaque)
Internet fame looks sweet, but
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
(Execs want a big hit)
(Big hit, big hit, big hit, big hit)
I already got my dream 'cause
I got day ones and they wanna hear the deep cuts
