

Pink Lemonade

PEABOD

Pink lemonade in my left hand
Weight of the world in my right
A pick-me-up after my crash landing
Could get me back in the sky
Pink lemonade in my left hand
Voices in the back of my mind
Saying I'm headed for a crash landing
But this ain't like last time
Pink lemonade in my

Hey
Shakin' off the impact
Checkin' if I'm intact
Took it on the chin when my plane hit the roof (when my plane hit the roof)
A mayday afternoon (a mayday afternoon)
Yeah, yeah
Got the wind knocked out of me
Ma still proud of me
Head in the clouds
I'll be back there soon (I'll be back there soon)
I'll see the man in the moon (See the man in the moon)
Yeah

If I can find a little light in the dark
Soon enough I'll see the rest of the stars
Something to cheer me could be the one thing that steers me back to a spark

Pull up to the party I'm a hot mess
But I could get it started with a lot less
Sugar in my cup
Turn the music up
I been through enough
Lemme choose to buff
The scratches out with subs in the trunk
I lost the horizon
I'll swallow my pride and
I'll stop keeping track of the crashes I pilot
Static makes it sound like no one's listening
But I keep finding heaven in the little things

If I can find a little light in the dark
Soon enough I'll see the rest of the stars
Something to cheer me could be the one thing that steers me back to a spark
