

Shoot From The Hip

PEABOD

Y'all know I had to put at least one trap song on this, right?
But this is like happy trap

(AHH)

(Shoot from the, shoot from the hip)

(Shoot from the) Shoot from the hip (Shoot from the hip)

(Shoot from the, shoot from the hip)

(Shoot from the shoot from the hip)

Ok ok ok

Hello, I am a millennial, in my home studio, watching YouTube videos

I grew up on Legos, Lunchables, and Eggos

Not to brag, but participation trophies, yeah I got those

That was years ago, 3 past 2 oh

BA degree yo, still feel like a niño

Mama called me kiddo when I was eating Cheerios

I still eat cereal, but I am an adult, here's the dealio

I grew up but what's up with all the responsibility?

I'm worried if I work it might stifle my creativity

I'm busy making my feed on Insta pleasing aesthetically

And somehow I get blamed for the death of the napkin industry

No one told me real life was such a mess

Why nobody tell me that I ain't the best?

All of the sudden everybody's unimpressed

I play it cool, but homie all I do is guess, I

Shoot from the hip, shoot from the shoot from the hip

All I do is

Shoot from the hip

I got no idea, I got no clue, so you know I just

Shoot from the hip, shoot from the shoot from the hip

All I do is

Shoot from the hip

I got no idea, I got no clue

Shoot

I'ma make it up as I go

I'm a PBS kid that got grown

Hold up, where did my summer break go?

Somebody, anybody tell me what I need to know

Wait, I gotta pay student loans? Oh

Pay my own bill for my phone? Oh

Come up with rent on my own? Oh

Any chance I could leave this alone? Oh

I don't think I took a class for this

All my friends are baristas and activists

Never took a test or checked off a list to be a grown up

I just took a shot and missed

And now I'm stuck in the middle feeling weird

I'm like a kid, but can kinda grow a beard

But I don't wanna work if it ain't my dream career

I am pseudo independent, I don't need a puppeteer

(AHH)

Shoot from the hip, shoot from the shoot from the hip

All I do is

Shoot from the hip

I got no idea, I got no clue, so you know I just

Shoot from the hip, shoot from the shoot from the hip
All I do is
Shoot from the hip
I got no idea, I got no clue
Shoot

(AHH)

Uh, my generation get a lot hate for our Snapchat selfies and swipe right dates

No ambition they say

No conviction they say

Got no vision they say

Want my prediction? Ok

Like it or not, we all you got, so homie get it through your brain

I think everyone's opinions need to take a little break

No matter what you say, no matter who you try to blame

Millennials will run the whole world some day

We are not the worst generation ever

When did we start any World Wars? Um, never

What kind of standard are you even trying to measure?

We own the internet and our memes are dang clever

Growing up is hard enough without your guilt trips

We don't gotta be the same as you to get it

I know it might seem like we don't always have a grip

But it don't matter 'cause we know how to shoot from the hip

Shoot from the hip, shoot from the shoot from the hip

All I do is

Shoot from the hip

I got no idea, I got no clue, so you know I just

Shoot from the hip, shoot from the shoot from the hip

All I do is

Shoot from the hip

I got no idea, I got no clue

Shoot

(Shoot from the, shoot from the hip)

(Shoot from the, shoot from the hip)

(Shoot from the, shoot from the hip)

(Shoot from the, shoot from the hip)
