

Kindness is The New Rock And Roll

Peace

Kindness is the new rock and roll
Kindness is the voice you can't control
We're all bones and skin
With feelings underneath
So let's make war on war

Kindness is new rock and roll
Kindness is the sign that we've evolved
We're all meat and blood
With feelings inbetween
So let's make war on war

We all sit beneath [?]
We've all god beliefs
Just [?] into eachothers eyes
There's pain in the past but [?] disasters
We know cause the past is [?]

Kindness is new rock and roll
Kindness is the climax of the soul
It's all for the love bursting from the sea
So lets make kindness the new rock and roll

Kindness is new rock and roll
So, give me kindness and I'll show you love
Expose your weakness, lend your trust
I'll be the olive branch if you'll be the dove
Peace, do you know what I mean?

Give me kindness and I'll show you love
Spread your weakness, learn to trust
I'll be the olive branch if you be the dove
Peace, do you know what I mean?
Peace, do you know what I mean?
