

When life comes down on me with all it's devilry
Love will murder hate, I know I must believe
Universal spirits please my sanity
But I'm controlling what is real or fantasy
I want to love you with all my asset

I know, know, know, know, know, know, know I'll be okay
Under pressure but I can take the strain
I don't see, I don't know, I don't need a cloud to ride
Cause I'm strong inside, I'm silverlined

I've been carrying some extra weight on me
I know salvation will be waiting by the water patiently
Cause I'm the scalpel that will shape my destiny

I know, know, know, know, know, know, know I'll be okay
Under pressure but I can take the strain
I don't see, I don't know, I don't need a cloud to ride
Cause I'm strong inside, I'm silverlined, I'm silverlined

I know, know, know, know, know, know, know I'll be okay
Under pressure but I can take the strain
I don't see, I don't know, I don't need a cloud to ride
Cause I'm strong inside, I'm silverlined
I know, know, know, know, know, know, know I'll be okay
Under pressure but I can take the strain
I don't see, I don't know, I don't need a cloud to ride
Cause I'm strong inside, I'm silverlined, I'm silverlined
