

Not Me

Peach Pit

The way your legs come up
And blue jean cuts them off
Just sitting out beside this sadness that I've got
I'm all alone because I never want to say
And both those legs will keep on walking far away

She's always rockin' a smile
Haven't seen mine in a while
Always so happy to be
But not me

The way your hair comes up things falling at your neck
Oh, it can help to know I won't stop feeling wrecked
I'm all alone because I'm never one to do
I guess it's best to keep from locking eyes with you

She's always rockin' a smile
Haven't seen mine in a while
Always so happy to be
But not me

I want something
Always want the last laugh
Could be nothing but I'll
Fuck off and be sad

You're rockin' a smile
Haven't seen mine in a while
Always so happy to be
But not me

Rockin' a smile
Haven't seen mine in a while
Always so happy to be
But not me
