

I Wouldn't Mind

Peach PRC

I know your heart must hurt
I hear it beating slow under your shirt
The one you don't wear at home
The colours say something they don't wanna know

Let's just drive somewhere right out of sight
And you can wear the clothes you like

We could be a couple of losers, baby
Laughing 'cause we're not at the cool-kids table
I'll find the devil and make him a deal
I'll fight the man in the sky, if he's real
Just so you can hold my hand
And maybe they'd understand
I'm not that strong, but I'd try
I wouldn't mind

How could a love that's soft be something wrong?
Baby, I promise it's not
You're rounding your numbers up
'Cause just like your girls, you prefer when they're odd
I know someday things will change and we'll say
"It feels just like yesterday"
Till then, we can run away

We could be a couple of losers, baby
Laughing 'cause we're not at the cool-kids table
I'll find the devil and make him a deal
I'll fight the man in the sky if he's real
Just so you can hold my hand
And maybe they'd understand
I'm not that strong, but I'd try
I wouldn't mind

No, I wouldn't mind
No, I wouldn't mind

Let's just drive somewhere out of sight
And you can wear the clothes you like
Till then, we can run away

We could be a couple of losers, baby
Laughing 'cause we're not at the cool-kids table
I'll find the devil and make him a deal
I'll fight the man in the sky, if he's real
Just so you can hold my hand
And maybe they'd understand
I'm not that strong, but I'd try
I wouldn't mind
