

Secret

Peach PRC

Your mama doesn't know I'm here
She's got indoctrinated fears
Can't tell your friends the truth
Hiding in club bathrooms
And making out to Britney Spears

So you sneak out around 10
While they're all saying amen
And now your clothes are on the floor again
And I'm playing along
But I don't know if I'm strong
To keep on hiding like I'm something wrong

I know you wanna keep it, your secret
And I would never speak it, your secret
You only wanna kiss me in your car
You only wanna love me in the dark
Keep it forever
But I just wanna be-e together
You only wanna kiss me in your car
You only wanna love me in the dark

You only wanna keep it
I'll be your secret
You only wanna keep it
I'll be your secret

You got the limo out the front
Sneaking around is kinda fun
But I wanna hold your hand
And take a photograph
Tell everyone that we're in love
Instead I hide with your coats
And write poetic notes
And then I lie to everyone I know

I know you wanna keep it, your secret
And I would never speak it, your secret
You only wanna kiss me in your car
You only wanna love me in the dark
Keep it forever
But I just wanna be-e together
You only wanna kiss me in your car
You only wanna love me in the dark

Am I crazy even saying I hate faking
Yeah it's hot, don't get me wrong
Hiding in your car, crying in bars
Dumb, but it's hot, so get me off

I know you wanna keep it, your secret
And I would never speak it, your secret
You only wanna kiss me in your car
You only wanna love me in the dark
Keep it forever

But I just wanna be-e together
You only wanna kiss me in your car
You only wanna love me in the dark

You only wanna keep it
I'll be your secret
You only wanna keep it
I'll be your secret
