

Stop This Train

Peach Tree Rascals

No, I'm not color blind
I know the world is black and white
Try to keep an open mind
But, just can't sleep on this tonight

Stop this train
I want to get off and go home again
Can't take the speed it's moving in
I know I can't
But honestly, won't someone stop this train?

The screaming don't end
The fights that don't stop
You wasn't perfect
But did a great job
And I ain't know shit
But who been hit
Hope it slow down
Before we get got
But how was I supposed to know your parents getting older
When you're holding mama's wills sayin' they should have brought t a lawyer
It was 2006, nah
I'm convinced time doesn't exist
Cause if it did then my mama outlived
Then my papa outwilled
Then my grand-mama still here in spirit

There's a train to be jumped
Some time we get stuck
I just wait till it passing by
And pick you back up

Stop this train
I want to get off and go home again
I can't take the speed it's moving in
I know I can't
But honestly, won't someone stop this train?

(Someone stop this train)
(Someone stop this train)
(Someone stop this train)
(Someone stop this train)
(Someone stop this train)
