Framework

Pears

Rip out the framework
Inspired by nothing
So feral and awkward
And hope itself burning
Suffice to say I've met my match
In human interaction
Naysayer crux embodiement
Sentient in fractions
Debrief the new guy
Sheltered emotions
Grit your teeth and take it boy
I am an island, you are the ocean
Back the fuck up
Shut 'em down
Challenge intensifies
Put my best foot forward
Trip and fall
You will go down with me
Down this spiral stairwell
Pierce the membrane through
A new paradigm
All that you remember
I will hold dismembered
Scattered like confetti
The accumulative crimes
I whisper to you: I'm screaming
But you refuse to hear me
This is a confession
I am a decoy
A target for sharpening
Call on the fire
So pleasantly disheartening
The womb in which I spend my hours planning insurrection
Is a symbol of perversion, I'm an infant by deception
And you're hiring a sitter
