

Killing Me

Pears

Every day I wear the same t-shirt
But my odor will expire
Rotting quite strategically
No action of mine required

If I put my best foot first
You'd still decide I was the worst

Careful plan to be sub-par
Hindered Tinder profile star
If you'll have me as I am
As I was, always will be

Something is killing me
It's me a killing spree
A single victim massecr
Spare the rod, beat only me
A brat defined by neurosis
Echelon of tolerance
Put up with subordination

Risk involved, nothing on the line at all
Recycled pleasantries
I am tall, The tallest order unevolved

Neanderthal elite an insect at your feet

Leave the light on
Kidding if you refuse
I just want experiences
I'd Love if it were you
Loser uninhibited
Everybody knows
Real talk, if you're not into it
I'll gracefully just go
It's probably better if I bail
My welcomes all worn out
But please consider
Can do better
Least I'll shower
