Hey precious baby, don't you be so shy
'Cause of the lovin' that went by in your life
I know right now it's kinda hard to see
But you're truly something special to me
Ever since that day you walked into my life
You got me going on a natural high
(I don't know) If you've been that you're one hell of a man
(And) I'll give you all the lovin' I can

I'm gonna pick you up and never let you down (Ooh, ooh, ooh)
And then I'll spin you around (Spin you around)
Keep your head above the clouds
And baby, then you will see
Lord knows how much you mean to me

I'm gonna make you happy
I'm gonna make you happy
You know I'm gonna make you happy (Oh baby)
I'm gonna make you happy
You know I'm gonna make you happy
I'm gonna make you happy, so happy

You had another lover, she let you down
(She let you down)
I wanna be the one to turn it around
When you need someone to feel love, I'll be there
I wanna make you happy, gotta show you how much I care

I'm gonna pick you up and never let you down (Ooh, ooh, ooh)
And then I'll spin you around (Spin you around)
Keep your head above the clouds
And baby, then you will see
Lord knows how much you mean to me

I'm gonna make you happy
I'm gonna make you happy
You know I'm gonna make you happy

Nothing compares to the lovin' that we share
And I swear, I swear, baby
I'll be there, ooh, ooh

I'm gonna pick you up and never let you down
And then I'll spin you around
Keep your head above the clouds
And baby, then you will see
Lord knows how much you mean to me
I'm gonna pick you up and never let you down (Ooh, ooh, ooh)
And then I'll spin you around (Spin you around and around)
Keep your head above the clouds
And baby, then you will see

Lord knows how much you mean to me

I'm gonna make you happy
I'm gonna make you happy
You know I'm gonna make you happy (Oh baby)
I'm gonna make you happy (Ooh baby)
You know I'm gonna make you happy (Oh)
