

One More Try

Pebbles

Mmm, yeah, oh honey, one more try

I was thinking 'bout the time
You told me I could make you mine
I thought maybe we could give it a better try
(Give it one more try)
Love without you don't mean much
I won't hang around or keep in touch
So baby you should give it another try
(Give it one more try)

They're trippin', 'cause they know that I
They know that I would never leave your side, no, no
They wanna play with your mind, tell lies to you
Don't tell me you believe that it's true, no
Stop it, baby

I was thinking 'bout the time
You told me I could make you mine
I thought maybe we could give it a better try
(Give it one more try)
Love without you don't mean much
I won't hang around or keep in touch
So baby you should give it another try
(Give it one more try)

Boy, I'm here to let you know
For your love, I won't let go
You're everything I dreamed of
Boy, I love you, yeah
You are the one, sugar
So, don't waste your time
Believing that I'm cheating
(There's nothing) They can do

Ooh baby, love me (Love me)
Honey, I like the way you hold me (Hold me)
You know just when I want it
You were mine the day
That I first saw your face
So baby, hold on to my love
Don't let it end this way
Oh, oh

I was thinking 'bout the time
(I was thinking, baby)
You told me I could make you mine
I thought maybe we could give it a better try
(Maybe we could give it a try)
(Give it one more try)
Love without you don't mean much
(Don't mean much)
I won't hang around or keep in touch
So baby, you should give it another try
(Baby, give it a try)
(Give it one more try)

I was thinking 'bout the time
(I was thinking 'bout the time)
You told me I could make you mine
I thought maybe we could give it a better try
(You should give it a try)
(Give it one more try)
Love without you don't mean much
(Love is nothing, babe, without you)
I won't hang around or keep in touch
So baby, you should give it another try
(Give it one more try)

(I was thinking 'bout the time)
I was thinking back
(Maybe we could give it)
You could be my baby
(Give it one more try)
(Love without you don't mean much)
Oh, it don't mean much
(So baby, you should give it another try)
Life don't mean much
(Give it one more try)
