

Casual

Peg Parnevik

Right about now
Ooh, snap, snap
Ooh, snap, snap

I know you got somebody
But my mind has started on you
Speakers blastin'
There are no counter fire I'm fallin' into
And I know that you want me
Just hope your girlfriend knows
You're lightin' up my phone
And always know to love my shows

Does she even know my name? Does she even know?
Kiss you on the mouth and baby now you can go home

I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me
I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me
I'mma play it casual, keep it on the low
I don't need to love you and she don't need to know
I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me

Take me to your apartment
Tell me to go so slowly
Say yeah we got till tomorrow
Kind of magic am I givin' into?
And I know that you want me
It's only natural
'Cause I could give you one night
But I was screen your call

Does she even know my name? Does she even know?
Kiss you on the mouth and baby now I'm goin' home

I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me
I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me
I'mma play it casual, keep it on the low
I don't need to love you and she don't need to know
I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me

Boy, I never meant to make you feel important
I only came over, 'cause you are a sure thing
Boy, I never meant to make you think I want it
The only time I call you, four o'clock in the mornin'

I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me
I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me
I'mma play it casual, keep it on the low
I don't need to love you and she don't need to know

I know you got somebody
But your body's all on me
