

Golden

Peg Parnevik

Sunset, the news breaks of you and I
The start of the new life
And I know it's curtain call
Yeah, they're closing down the show
Losing myself in every whiskey glass
But you're the one fucked up
It's okay, I'll take the fall
For a moment there we had it all

I guess that's the end of you and me
I guess that's the end

But baby, we were golden
Crashed into the ocean
Great 'til we exploded
Tell me when it's over
So much for devotion
Took my love and broke it
Can't see through the smoke and
Did you even notice?

I get along with every hotel room
You're back at your old house
Did I tell you that I met someone?
He respects me, and we're having fun
But he don't know how to dance, not like you
No, he got plans, that's my man, not like you

Mm
I guess that's the end of you and me
I know it's the end

But baby, we were golden
Crashed into the ocean
Great 'til we exploded
Tell me when it's over
So much for devotion
Took my love and broke it
Can't see through the smoke and
Did you even notice?

Hey, I meant to call you the other day
And say how you doin', by the way
Oh, we were magic, hey weren't we?
But I guess that's the end
I know it's the end

Baby, we were golden

But baby, we were golden (so golden)
Crashed into the ocean (ocean)
Great 'til we exploded
Tell me when it's over
So much for devotion
Took my love and broke it
Can't see through the smoke and
Did you even notice?
