

Never Know Your Name

Peg Parnevik

Yeah, cut your hair
Always been afraid of changing
Now and then I get overwhelmed
'Cause we work up our feelings come in waves
Back and forth like every single day

Yeah, I feel so stupid
I know we've been through this
I'm 20 and clueless
I'm fucked up and human
And I need you
Yeah, I need you

Say that we're okay
That I won't lose you
Fake that and I'll take that
I'd rather play the fool than play it safe
Rather hurt than never know your name
Say that you gon' wait
That it's like a movie
Play that, baby, play that
They never tell you love is really pain
Rather hurt than never know your name

I'm drunk enough
To be calling on a Thursday
Say you're in love
That you didn't mean to hurt me
I'ma keep dancing
I'ma drink whiskey
Need a little more 'til you're gone

I feel so stupid
I know we've been through this
I'm 20 and clueless
Yeah, I'm fucked up and human
And I need you
I still need you

Say that we're okay
That I won't lose you
Fake that and I'll take that
I'd rather play the fool than play it safe
Rather hurt than never know your name (Never know your name)
Say that you gon' wait
That it's like a movie
Play that, baby, play that
They never tell you love is really pain
Rather hurt than never know your name (Never know your name)

You know what you mean to me
So could you be mean to me?
I'm weak in the knees
Yeah, tell me your (Tell me, could you just say that)

Say that we're okay
That I won't lose you

Fake that and I'll take that
I'd rather play the fool than play it safe
Rather hurt than never know your name (Never know your name)
Say that you gon' wait
That it's like a movie
Play that, baby, play that
They never tell you love is really pain
Rather hurt than never know your name (Could you say that)

Ooh...
I rather hurt than never know your name
Ooh...
I rather hurt than never know your name
