

O'Boy

Peg Parnevik

Man, I don't have time to go over this
But I need some guaranties for goin' in
I'm tired of fightin' for the same old things
We could be fire, man just pick up a lighter
You don't ride shotgun, yeah boy
You don't get the finest seat
You don't get to try out these wheels until you show me
You can be better than them
Honey, don't play me like a game
I don't wanna hear you talkin'
About that money you made

Say, oh boy, are you listening?
All the girls says you wanna play games you handelín'
Oh, did you know
I need you to commit and if you don't
You ain't shit

Told you why, you got time and I keep sayin' it
This girl is a dime, this girl is goin' it
Man I could've sworn you were the realest thing
We could be fire, man just lend me a lighter
I don't need to ride that wave, boy
This is just a vacay
You don't get a five-star resort unless you payin'
I know I'm better than those girls you came to fuckin' with
I don't wanna hear you talkin'
I don't wanna hear it baby

Say, oh boy, are you listening?
All the girls says you wanna play games you handelín'
Oh, did you know
I need you to commit and if you don't
You ain't shit
You ain't shit
You ain't shit

I'm so done with this
I feel borderline and different
If you wanna beg, then get in, or wait
You just lost my patience
If you wanna say it, say it
Can you rise to the occasion, or wait

Say, oh boy, are you listening?
All the girls says you wanna play games you handelín'
Oh, did you know
I need you to commit and if you don't
You ain't shit

Say, oh boy, are you listening?
All the girls says you wanna play games you handelín'
Oh, did you know
I need you to commit and if you don't
You ain't shit
You ain't shit
You ain't shit
