

Crying Shame

Pegboard Nerds

You're driving past your house
I find myself in tears
Thinking about the love we shared
Thinking about the times we had
I don't know why
I do this to myself
Foolish heart is all I have
So forgive me, love

It's a crying shame, it's a crying shame, baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame, we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over

Crying shame, it's a crying shame, baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame, we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over

(It's a crying shame, baby...)

[?] telling me be strong
Living [?]
No one can take you away
And now I got to live with this pain
Your heart went cold
I wonder if I should
'Cause it feels like I'm dying inside
Yes, it feels like I need you [?]

It's a crying shame, it's a crying shame, baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame, we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over

Crying shame, it's a crying shame, baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame, we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over

(It's a crying shame, baby...)

'Cause our love is gone and our time is over

We had a good thing
In a second it's gone

Well, it's a crying shame...

(It's a crying shame, baby...)

'Cause our love is gone and our time is over
