

Superpower

Pegboard Nerds

They call us warriors
When hope is gone we still prevail
We cheating on the coroner
Like alien foreigners

We keep on running
Never afraid of falling
Give you my all
Out of my lovin' (yeah)

We rise above
We stop the clock
Then look me in the eye
And call me a warrior
(A warrior)

'Cause I am strong
But I feel weak
When you're the fire next to me
And call me a warrior

In the darkest hour
You're my superpower

(In the darkest hour)
(You're my superpower)

In the darkest hour
You're my superpower

In the darkest hour
You're my superpower

(Then look me in the eye)
(Call me a warrior)
In the darkest hour
You're my superpower

(Superpower)
(Then look me in the eye)
(Call me a warrior)
In the darkest hour
You're my superpower

(Superpower)
(Superpower)
(Superpower)

And I go to war and fight all alone
Until I'm broken down to the bone (yeah)

And if you have to leave
Here before me
Guess I'll never be superhero
Without you I lose and drop to zero
All of my powers will disappear

We rise above
We stop the clock
Then look me in the eye
And call me a warrior
(A warrior)

We rise above
We stop the clock
Then look me in the eye
And call me a warrior

We rise above
We stop the clock
Then look me in the eye
And call me a warrior

In the darkest hour
You're my superpower

In the darkest hour
You're my superpower

(Then look me in the eye)
(Call me a warrior)
In the darkest hour
You're my superpower

(Then look me in the eye)
(Call me a warrior)
In the darkest hour
You're my superpower
