

Cloudy Morning

Peggy Lee

Cloudy morning, dark as night
Tops of buildings lost from sight

A sign of spring was nowhere to be seen
The trees in Central Park were anything but green
And then that cloudy morning slowly cleared
Tops of buildings reappeared

Then suddenly I saw you come my way
And I knew that this would be a lovely day