They tell you be happy for the sunshine
But don't stand too close or you could burn away
They tell you be happy for the moonlight
But don't hang too late or you could feel the shade
I wanna be happy like the first time
I wanna be me, it's time to feel again
I'm getting rid of these chains for the last time
Burning everything down
Please get out of my way

I been turned away and let down
(So many times)
When you fought really hard but still loose all
(So many times)
I've lost my hope in finding my resolve
(So many times)
Know I said fuck it try again right?
That's not how your story gotta end right?

You be trying to act like me baby it ain't no contest
I be living life because I used to be so stressed
Please try not to be so obsessed
I took a dive at my own sanity and conquest
Know that we just getting started
Loving yourself is the hardest
But after that please take them skeletons up out the closet
Would be a nuisance if my two cents is not deposit

They tell you be happy for the sunshine
But don't stand too close or you could burn away
They tell you be happy for the moonlight
But don't hang too late or you could feel the shade
I wanna be happy like the first time
I wanna be me, it's time to feel again
I'm getting rid of these chains for the last time
Burning everything down
Please get out of my way

The other side looks brighter
Than a thousand suns
Made for walking over every hill
But I still recall
How the pain feels
If My feet need a break
I fly
Sun hit the skin of a pretty thing
I fall back
Into everything
Candy coated kiss
From an angel
Put me in a daze
When she spread wings

Don't tell me to stand back
I'm dancing on the sun now
I knew eventually the burns would fade away
(Yeah yeah yeah)

Live my days like I only got one now
Blue waves
Hit my spirit
Like a time bomb
What kind a time you on
My minds been on
Being
Blissed out
That love hit kinda different
When it come with some heat now

They tell you be happy for the sunshine
But don't stand too close or you could burn away
They tell you be happy for the moonlight
But don't hang too late or you could feel the shade
I wanna be happy like the first time
I wanna be me, it's time to feel again
I'm getting rid of these chains for the last time
Burning everything down
Please get out of my way

I been so damn high
But why my lows feel so low
In my dreams I can fly
Can't stop so I'm just gonna go
I'm getting higher higher higher
I'm smoking all by myself
Paper bowl filled with jambalaya
Homemade this ain't off that shelf
I'm uptown made, born by the lake
Hot where I'm from I got the a/c cranked
Y'all be calling shots but ya end up blank
I don't have no limits Pell bring out the tank
Fuck what they gonna say
My Cadillac sitting on skates
Anxiety strong so just pass the bong
And trust me everything will be okay

They tell you be happy for the sunshine
But don't stand too close or you could burn away
They tell you be happy for the moonlight
But don't hang too late or you could feel the shade
I wanna be happy like the first time
I wanna be me, it's time to feel again
I'm getting rid of these chains for the last time
Burning everything down
Please get out of my way
