I'm grinding, I'm grinding that currency coming I'm sexing the money (I'm se xing the money)
I'm shining, I'm shining I'm certainly stunning the broads call me cunning (t he broads call me cunning)
I know they don't know me but after my show end they tell me it's nothing (t hey tell me it's nothing)
Tomorrow ain't promised I live my life honest with no interruptions
Fuck repercussions I'm living and learning
Working and earning, and sharing my sermon
And brothers feel threatened but that don't concern me
I'm way too high up for them birds to deter me
Fuck repercussions I'm living and learning
New Orleans dreaming while sipping on Bourbon
It's tasty but don't abuse it 'ya heard me? '
Wish I could go back but the future look perfect!

(Why)

Who you know got it like that?

Who know run it make rappers get lapped?

(Why)

Who you know got it like that? spend what I make but I get it right back

(Why)

Give it right back, work ten to ten I'm committed like that

But I might celebrate cause we winning like that

We been working the streets for a minute like that

(Why)

(Like that, Like that)

Working on the streets for a minute like that (For a minute like that)

(Why)

(Like that, Like that)

Working on the streets for a minute like that (For a minute like that)

Just made a way

I can't complain I'm doing fine

No pain today

I came to say what's on my mind

No games to play

It's hard to relay you'll see in time

Look in my face...

Know that I'm stacking, stacks rolling up as I'm ashing

Wasting away to my passion

Youngin' was born with the heart of lion but spit with the flow of a dragon,
I'm macking

I wonder how all of this happened, my friends are as scarce as my cash is Old girls will call us and ask "how We doing?" I'm worried they just tryna c ash in

I'm saying, I act like I'm back from the grave

I know my relationships dead
A boss gotta pay the cost, but I heard that a boss never take a loss
So I'ma just drink it off, fuck that!
I will not drink at all
I sip something different cause I don't like mixing
I'm buzzing while buzzing I tell em it's nothing, my G
