

Fallback

Pell

This toxic, this feeling
Can't be too
Dependent
I'm tired of pretending
I'll fallback, I'll fallback

Keep this inside of your mind, for I get head of myself
Used to be the one, good for my health
Now I'm feeling sick and the liquor don't help
Who the fuck gone pay these tabs babe
Somethings I shoulda said
Somethings I can't forget
But anyway, ima get back to the mission, miss ya contemplating tickets
If I send one you'd be all packed
Swear I need to fallback
Looking at my phone
Scared of dial tones
But more scared to be alone
Damn I got a voicemail
Guess you can call me later on
Maybe I'll hear you
If you reply
Get notified
Bout all the shit going on in your life
Curse my conscience
Cause my vm still ain't get a reply
Claiming this ain't denial
But I'm swimming where its hard to see the course of one life, that failed s liced

This toxic, this feeling
Can't be too
Dependent
I'm tired of pretending
I'll fallback, I'll fallback

Can't get you outta my head when I scroll down my timeline
See your history and damn time flys
Seems like yesterday you was the one that I liked
Had to read between the lines, girl
Somethings better unsaid
Feel I'm better off here
But later on, I'ma keep scrolling
Fiending for some company
Till then here's something
Playing God with all them filters
Don't know if I'm seeing clearer
Met you where the women shallow
Been a sucker for the swimming
100 K follows on twitter
Feel I been there day one whicha
Said u flew from oklahoma
But your gucci 'd to your britches
Go figure
You popping from those clothes yo daddy give ya
At shit, guess it take some work to rock them Christians
Television well I heard its hard road

But with yo headshots, you've got one foot forward
Just post

This toxic, this feeling
Can't be too
Dependent
