

Ocean View 2.0

Pell

Yeah, Tape One Hundred and Eight

My addiction got me falling, crawling
Hoping for some more
Yep, yep, yep
Taste defeat so bittersweet beneath your feet
You at the floor
Yep, yep, yep
Hitting rock bottom
All the nights we slaved forgotten
It's journey to forever
And you're not a fan of stopping
Speeding down the fast lane
Avoiding all the cautions
Non believers hope we lost them
Trying to live a life that's awesome
Think I'm getting jaded
Homies wonder what it cost them
Tell my momma quit her worries
We are going to live without a problem
Tired of the waiting
Living life without an option
Ocean view within my sights
I book my flight
And now I'm flying

Is it Mary Jane?
Is it ecstasy?
Is there anything that you want from me?
Grinding up all night, I guess it's meant to be
Your dreams come true
If you just believe

Is it Mary Jane?
Is it ecstasy?
Is there anything that you want from me?
Grinding up all night, I guess it's meant to be
Your dreams come true
If you just believe

Your addiction got you falling, balling
Falling from the sky
Yep, yep, yep
Fight the feeling now you preaching, reaching for something you've never tried
Yep, yep, yep
Lust for drugs and fame
Lust for girls who know my name
Louie frames, gold chains
Ice to cover up the pain
Think that I'm the man
Cause they don't know who I am
Grab a girl who barely know me
But her cleavage is insane
Living like a movie as my dreams take center stage
In a daze look at all the moves we made, ain't it strange
Not a fan of smoking

But we flying paper planes
Try to stay above the drama
Can't believe how far we came

Is it Mary Jane?
Is it ecstasy?
Is there anything that you want from me?
Grinding up all night, I guess it's meant to be
Your dreams come true
If you just believe

Is it Mary Jane?
Is it ecstasy?
Is there anything that you want from me?
Grinding up all night, I guess it's meant to be
Your dreams come true
If you just believe

Is it Mary Jane?
Is there anything?
Grinding up all night, night, night, night
