

On Everything

Pell

They all abominable with they rep
They get held accountable for the stress
And I been methodical with my steps
Since Wayne spelled phenomenal with the "f"
Now I've decided to take a breath
Step up and face those fears
Waking up alone is such a new feeling
But that's what it took to make things clear
My lady decided that she was better gone
And after seven years, I know shes never wrong
And I got that on my mind while people hit me for verses
So please excuse if I don't make every line perfect
People troll for my attention yea they hope I see em
A buffet of feelings they should get a margarita
Kinda hard to see it but my future is bright
Walgreens off brand, this nigga is nice

Where I'm going, yea I don't know it
But I'm so focused on everything
Let that soak in, so when I go in
You know I put that on everything
Where I'm going, yea I don't know it
But I'm so focused on everything
Put that on everything, put that on everything

Hello
Hello
Hey what's up
Howdy
This for all the people
Scatter brained thoughts cloudy
Woke up feeling pressure
Just cause living take some effort
Slap the bottles off the dresser
I can't let my habits drown me
Pivot shirt fresh like I doused it with some downy
I know I been it, but you fuckers can't clown me
Don't know which way to go
But they follow my journey
I could slip it's school
Long as niggas learning
Cause I'll be gemini playing each side
Knowing that I walk this path alone
Feelings on tuck like a b side
Now a broken heart my favorite song
Catch me outta of touch on the east side
Prolly getting tied up tied up
Swear the rillo breaded getting fried up
Just following my heart till the times up
Won't the past define us

Where I'm going, yea I don't know it
But I'm so focused on everything
Let that soak in, so when I go in
You know I put that on everything
Where I'm going, yea I don't know it
But I'm so focused on everything

Put that on everything, put that on everything

Wake up in the morning
Take a piss and wash my hands
Shorty all my, money legal ain't no need to wash these bands
Building from the ground up you should see the floor plans
Ain't not telling where I'm headed
But some top was in my plans
Wake up in the morning
Take a piss and wash my hands
Shorty all my, money legal ain't no need to wash these bands
Building from the ground up you should see the floor plans
Ain't not telling where I'm headed
But the top

Where I'm going, yea I don't know it
But I'm so focused on everything
Let that soak in, so when I go in
You know I put that on everything
Where I'm going, yea I don't know it
But I'm so focused on everything
Put that on everything, put that on everything
