

Gotta put my shit on airplane mode
Airplane mode

Tear stains on your sweatshirt
Crybaby ever since birth
Hard hit by the home run
Make sure that you tie your cleats first
Laced on the insides
So high that your tongue don't even work
Late nights lay awake memories get erased and
This where you don't want to be
But your too selfish to leave
Cause and effect, let it breathe

Safe at third base, in the lead
Swung after sweet misery
Cause and effect, let it breathe

Talk shit cause of regrets
Apologize if the verse might seems stressed
Email after email, some days too much I don't even check
What I'm worth cause the work make street sweat
So hot you gon barely need a v-neck
Game changed in my lane, got me caught up in the web, surf the internet
And you might see what I mean, try to tell me, talking sheep
When a hook and a dream make life feel free, what's money (money)?

Safe at third base, in the lead
Swung after sweet misery
Cause and effect let it breathe
With a verse and a dream

Yeah, right, uh
Still climbing we ain't gotta see the peak yet
Know I'm getting closer, will my idols show me respect?
Know I'm getting older, I try to run from regret
See me with the bottle, I just tell them it's a reflex
You know me, live fast, sip slow
Move faster, sip more
Hydroplane to my goals
Airplane to the coast
Where love is never shown
All I do is live it, but I'm God to my bros
Guess I got half of what I asked for
But ain't afraid to work so I could have more
Pulling up my sleeves (sleeves, yeah)

Safe at third base, in the lead
Swung after sweet misery
Cause and effect let it breathe
With a verse and a dream
