Brother don't speed
Know the road gets steep, but you can call on me
Journey to the top is forever
Keep on winning, you just lose sleep
I keep on sinning, but I don't preach
Dawwwwg, Not at all
Once you let the gold go, you can go and chase your goals

Brother don't speed
Know the road gets steep, but you can call on me
Journey to the top is forever
Keep on winning, you just lose sleep
I keep on sinning, but I don't preach
Dawwwwg, Not at all
Once you let the gold go, you can go and chase your goals

Summertime jams, summertime jams
Coldest winter in the 'Ville
No thrills, just chills, with the summer I stand
I'd like to think we're millionaires, cause before you know it, no one cares
Autumn no fleets, Now we don't sleep
Roll a couple L's cause, we In this too deep
Seems last blink it was all just fun, now none of my verses come cheap
Now my girls wanna go meet (meat), butcher Young P
I'll be cutting all week
Cheese

But as the seasons change, I remain the same
But as the seasons change, I remain the same

Brother don't speed
Know the road gets steep, but you can call on me
Journey to the top is forever
Keep on winning, you just lose sleep
I keep on sinning, but I don't preach
Dawwwwg, Not at all
Once you let the gold go, you can go and chase your goals

Springing to my feet, comatose I dream
When I wake I think of ways to enhance my being I'm seeing
A different side of me, society-less
Mom's mad cause I don't show success
Need checks for my family's respect?
Suspected to be the illest
Box-whip trips, I'm slammin' doors
No new niggas, gotta keep them closed, keep control
Even when I'm cruising
Moving fast so why I'm feeling slow-mo bro?
I'm worried bout the past, should be focused on the goal
I let It go

But as the seasons change, I remain the same
But as the seasons change, I won't

Brother don't speed
Know the road gets steep, but you can call on me
Journey to the top is forever

Keep on winning, you just lose sleep
I keep on sinning, but I don't preach
Dawwwwg, Not at all
Once you let the gold go, you can go and chase your goals
