

Silly Phone

Pell

Where did the rain go
That clouded my mind
There's food on my table
Got some wine on the side
And Lord knows I'm thankful
For what I call life
Oh and I know this much is true
Oh, and I know you feel it too
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
Oh and I know this much is true
Oh and I know you feel it too
This that

Call me on your silly phone
Before it's way too late
We'll be hanging by the beach
Soaking up the day
Oh I swear it's such a shame
Oh yo should have seen it
Beautiful
I really mean it
Water icy cold
But we still gotta float to the next adventure
And I'm
Thinking about taking my time

Where did the rain go
That clouded my mind
There's food on my table
Got some wine on the side
And Lord knows I'm thankful
For what I call life
Oh and I know this much is true
Oh, and I know you feel it too
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
Oh and I know this much is true
Oh and I know you feel it too
This that

I just stole ya love
Yeah it might become a robbery
Nowadays can't lay up
Unless bad hoes lay beside of me
In my early twenties got me thinking what's monogamy
Blood from the set I rep m
Got them hoes wanna follow me
And I'm gone let them too

I quick two crash the coup
While telling her bring a friend or two
I'm done with interviews
That's how my last lover found the hard way
That it'll never be just me and you

Where did the rain go
That clouded my mind
There's food on my table
Got some wine on the side
And Lord knows I'm thankful
For what I call life
Oh and I know this much is true
Oh, and I know you feel it too
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
This that, ooooh!
(Ooooh)
Oh and I know this much is true
Oh and I know you feel it too
This that
