

Skyfall

Pell

Even if the sky, came down right now
Even if the sky, even if the sky's, fallin' down
Fallin' down, fallin' down, falls down

Ponderin' every morning
When that golden orange start glowin'
Marigolding, wake and bakin'
Oatmeal raisin
Cookies stallin'
Momma chirp me from New Orleans
Say I don't come home that often
Tell her I was busy
New York City
Apple awesome
Strawberry Abita
Take a drink for those who lost me
I'm just stayin' in my lane
Don't you curse me Ricky Bobby
Fuck a 9 to 5
I'm on that 9 to 9
You tryna make a livin'
I'm tryna stay alive
We lookin' at the same world
But through different eyes
I got a message for the brothers
Barely gettin' by
Them homies rollin' paper planes, can't afford to fly
I pray you see some better days and some wild nights
Nothing's promised but we all gotta touch the sky
So I'm smokin', while I'm ridin' with my brother Camron
Know the Lord never give me nothin' I can't handle (Handle)
So I'm down for gettin' better, it's whatever just won't let up, yeah

Even if the sky, came down right now
Even if the sky, even if the sky's, fallin' down
Fallin' down, fallin' down, falls down

Hey yo when my niggas call, I know it's time to ride
And where I'm at right now, it's lookin' do or die (Yeah, yeah)
I gotta get back home and try to find a light
Like "Where'd it go?" and "Who could roll?"
Yeah, blowin' smoke so high, it's good luck comin' down
I live to light fake smiles, that's when I come around (Hey)
No lookin' back things wild, it's crazy where I'm from
I never told, uh, my momma know (Yeah)
'Bout, all them wild things young boys had to put up with
On a quest for dreams, people try [?] quick (Yeah)
Sippin' at the challenge, young king, yeah I need comfort
I can't close my eyes, sleep on queens, but shit ain't lovely
See the world around me, look for real ones here to run with (Yeah)
Right where I reside, think it over, could be something (Ah)
Time to kill, move through the greatest thrills (Greatest thrills)
Tryna live mine so it's fuck it how you feel

Even if the sky, came down right now
Even if the sky, even if the sky's, fallin' down
Fallin' down, fallin' down, falls down

Tell me, who do you call on when you lookin' up, yeah, I'm livin' my best life
In my past, I [?] givin' up
[?] hand the label my cassette, was a threat
Internet not invented, never got a yes
Okay bet, better next life, better be the best
Knew I didn't fulfill my purpose yet
I died a beautiful death, yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Hopped out the '90 with the mic' in my hand
Signed my own birth certificate
They couldn't ever see me with a pen

Even if the sky, came down right now
Even if the sky, even if the... fallin' down
Fallin' down, fallin' down

Don't need my fists to fight my fears
Just my feet, to stand in my truth 'cause that's all we get to keep
She's too busy sleep while I'm lookin' for something to eat
My mouth's a ruler, measure my greatness just by how I speak
And I ain't even reach my peak, yet
And I ain't got no one to compete with
Nothin' compare with this Mount Everest
Use my mountains as my leverage
So if the sky falls I'll be there to capture it
