

Wait On Me

Pell

Never cared much but for who you love
You need to wake up, think you had too much

Follow endlessly
Time flies by
You hear the tragic symphony
Drowning, so don't wait on me
Don't wait on me

Waking at night, checking your wrist for the time
Changing the hands on the dial, reaching for life
Hoping that you can find Christ
Life has been letting you down
You ask for a drink, ruin your nose like a sphinx
Nubian queen, that's a crown, mama a doctor and papa no fool
You moving careful through school
And you never care much but for who you love
You need to wake up, think you had too much (to drink)
I held you down, made a mistake then I dipped
Said you don't need me around
How many bottles till you make a bar?
Waiting, oh no, that's bizarre
I wanna talk
But I can't find the words
You lying on me?
And you still can't find courage, you blab to your friends
But still you don't have time for a call, no time for your boy
Like mothers who never at home or fathers who pussies at heart
Don't run for the cloths, them drawers wasn't yours
I know that you mad, them Trojans were stashed
But you went through my bag hoping you'd find what you needed
I'm being facetious, baby, why is you tripping?
Fuck a bag, catch me leaving after Four Seasons
I'm feeling the game, you know it's the Holiday Inn, but fuck it, I'm ballin g
No tears, just offers that I toss cause they garbage
No friend of the artist cause my typewriter haunted with the ghost of our pr oblems
My dearly departed

Follow endlessly
Time flies by
You hear the tragic symphony
Drowning, so don't wait on me
Don't wait on me

Don't wait on me
Don't wait on me
Don't wait on me
Don't wait on me

Follow endlessly
Time flies by
You hear the tragic symphony
Drowning, so don't wait on me
Don't wait on me
