

Oh Divineo

Pendragon

Lead me, lead me
Take me down, take me down
Cry, don't cry
Long standing hypocrites you burn the candle at both ends
Reality, reflection in my eye
Tranquillity a virtue in itself
Please give it to me
We need compassion
Of long standing nation
A book overdue, of lasting relation

Lead me, lead me
Cry, don't cry
Trace your deism and take it to the roots
Humpty Dumpty just fell down
He's crashing through the roof
Oh Divineo

Where does the fire burn now?
Where does the fire burn now?
Where does the fire burn?
