

Pretty, animal, international
Dirty dreams, dirty soul
Come on, baby, won't you kiss me like a cannibal
Trigger happy, yeah, I'm ready to go

I'm feeling reloaded, a little unholy
I'm feeling lock stocked and smoking out, I can't control it
I'm feeling X-rated, sharpened and serrated
Show me what you got, I really hope it's my black-and-gold-plated

My mind is going (Medicine is overrated)
But I'm medicated (I love it so you have to hate it)
Beneath your fingers (So close I can almost taste it)
My vision's fading (I love it so you have to hate it)
Give me the poison (Medicine is overrated)
Fuck what you're saying (I love it so you have to hate it)
I'm feeling primal
Ah, filthy animal, kiss me like a cannibal

We're good for health, bad for education
Let 'em move pills for every occasion
I keep a friend tucked under my shirt
I miss my old problems, yeah, the new ones are worse

My mind is going
But I'm medicated
Beneath your fingers
My vision's fading
Gimme the poison
Fuck what you're saying
