

Are you insane or are you fucking deluded?
You want a war of words, you wanna twist the knife?
I guess your brain is polluted
You better bite your tongue before you roll the dice

Are you - paying attention?
Are you - listening now?
I'm out for a little redemption
Brick by brick, breaking under the pressure

It's a halo of thorns above your head
My friend, the world is pushing back
Minute of silence for all the things she said
My friend, the world is pushing back

Don't walk away, we need to find a solution
This ain't a fucking game and there's a price to pay
We need a quick resolution
I've got a taste of blood and it won't go away

Are you - paying attention?
Are you - listening now?
I'm out for a little redemption
Brick by brick, breaking under the pressure

It's a halo of thorns above your head
My friend, the world is pushing back
Minute of silence for all the things she said
My friend, the world is pushing back

Back...

The world is pushing back
