

Save The Cat

Pendulum

Yeah

Everybody knows you've bled enough
With all of the snakes inside your head
Another in the headlights, scared to love
It's too late for me, I'm already dead

It's the wrong time, so you tear it apart
You were right, there's a hole in my heart
Nothing's ever good enough
You better save your soul

And they say that hurting another
Is the same as hurting yourself
There's no hope to recover
See you another time
So we don't see eye-to-eye
But I think I'm feeling good... no, nevermind
Losing the will to stay alive
So turn out the lights

Don't want it unless it's so pure
It's all in the way she looks through your eyes
Suffocate and hold tight, you know it doesn't feel right
It's all in the way she looks through
Through my perfect alibi

Everybody sees you in the dark
With all of the ghosts that might have been
Another black shadow on your head
Another little secret under your skin

Say the three words, I'll be hitting the wall
You were right, I feel nothing at all
Nothing's ever good enough
You better save your soul

And they say that hurting another
Is the same as hurting yourself
There's no hope to recover
See you another time
So we don't see eye-to-eye
But I think I'm feeling good... no, nevermind
Losing the will to stay alive
So turn out the lights

Don't want it unless it's so pure
It's all in the way she looks through your eyes
Suffocate and hold tight, you know it doesn't feel right
It's all in the way she looks through
My perfect alibi
