

Life's A Gamble

Penetration

Something says it's time for change
If that's what people want
Wheels are turning
Conscious burning
Will they ever stop
And sometimes I see all the answers
Does fate tell me what to do
Decision, a clearer vision
Moving into view

Sometimes I'm optimistic
And then you disappoint
Sometimes I'm going nowhere
I need time to think things out and
Sometimes I see a direction
Does fate tell me what to do
Decision, a clearer vision
You can see it too

Life's a gamble
Life's a gamble
Life's a gamble
Life's a gamble, life's a gamble

Moaning

Life's a gamble

Into outro.
