

Heroes And Monsters

Penny & Sparrow

The moon's gonna rise no matter what
The moon's gonna rise no matter what
Yeah, I can feel my armor, underneath my fur but
The moon's gonna rise no matter what

(Ooh) (Ooh)

There's a house on fire and I'm running in
There's a house on fire and I'm running in
With an empty box of matches, I'm the one who burned it down, burn
There's a house on fire and I'm running in

The way the parts of me
They always disagree
It's a wonder that this body doesn't break
The moon's gonna rise no matter what

Yeah, the moons gonna rise no matter what
And I'm a hero and a monster, so tie me to the chair

Because the moon's gonna rise no matter what
The way the parts of me
They always disagree
It's a wonder that this body doesn't break
It's a wonder that this body doesn't break
It's a wonder that this body doesn't break
It's a wonder that this body doesn't break
