

Makeshift

Penny & Sparrow

Behold the way you're feeling
You put a robe on everything
And it ain't right, but you crown emotion
Instead of holding me as king
It's only thin, it's only pain
It didn't make or give your name
Notice your reflection, it's your face

Amen make amends
Makeshift break and bend
Time you will not spend alone

Hydrangea soft, but violent
You're busy seeking other things
I don't know why
But honesty rarely honestly makes it back to me
I haven't left, you haven't tried
I haven't changed and I won't tonight
Sit and talk, stay with me, it's alright

Amen make amends
Makeshift break and bend
Time you will not spend alone
Alone

I never fall outside of love
I never fall outside of love
I never fall outside of love
I never fall outside of love
