

Stoic

Penny & Sparrow

Don't be stoic
It's no sin to be kind
My body's been heartsick
For too long a time

There's no need to get angry
You look dumb when you yell

I know you still want me
Right here can't you tell

I never meant to make you hate me
It's not all your fault
I know I'm guilty

We can both stop, just say you love me

Don't be so dramatic
We both knew we would fight

You been sad, I've been lonely
But in one bed tonight

There's no need to get turned off
I don't where to stay
Our sheets are so empty
We both hate it that way

I never meant to make to you hate me
It was not all your fault, I know that I've been guilty
We can both stop, just say you love me
