

You Mean Too Much To Me

Penny & Sparrow

Take a half
Or a quarter should do
You'll catch up to me
Be here now
Out of your mind
Time to let, time to let go

Whoa is me, I devoured your neck
Left it wet and pink
Synchronize all that we choose
You mean too much to me

I forget
Then I hum to recall
Mmm
All this pain
Made me a goddamn
Answer to someone's blues
You are what wonderful has to be
Mmm

Here and now
Down to the truth
You mean too much to me
